PAX East—5 things we’re excited for

Events Blue Tiger Mar 25, 2019

We’re going to PAX

And we’re ‘supes excited for it! Here are the top five things we can’t wait for.

YOU

DUH! This is why we do what we do. We love seeing Ambassadors at each of the events we attend. Stop by, say hi, and get swag at the same time. If you can’t be there in person, don’t fret! We will be in the PAX East Discord channel at least once a day to chat with you.

“The best part about PAX is always the community. I can’t wait to see Ambassadors I haven’t met before, talk about the latest games we played at PAX, and welcome new gamers to the Xbox Ambassadors program!” –Rezzee

No badge, no problem

Again, we love meeting each of you in person. So come to the Microsoft Store at Prudential Center, Boston, MA to see us on March 29, 7–8 PM ET! You don’t need a PAX East badge to come by. Taxel, AshesX, EnolaCat, and Rezzee will be there with more Ambassador swag.

“I’m looking forward to connecting with more Ambassadors, Xbox gamers and seeing the friends I’ve made on Mixer as well as the games.” –EnolaCat

Connecting with more gamers

Not only are we looking forward to seeing Ambassadors at PAX East, we are also excited about meeting other gamers who want to help create welcoming experiences for everyone.

“I’m excited to talk about the program and spread awareness of our influence to more gamers.” –Miss AshesX

“I’m excited to play games, hang out with Xbox Ambassadors, and see what all the other great organizations in the PAX Diversity Lounge are doing!” –Taxel

SWAG SWAG SWAG
